Q. Did you look at the CAD Report in order to write that?

And was that part of his patrol route?

Trooper Rivera is a New Jersey State Trooper assigned to the Hamilton Station. We have a prescribed patrol area. 295 is in that area which covers Lawrence, Lawrenceville School, the Lawrence off the highway. That is in our area, yes.

When you say patrol loop, is that part of the patrol loop?

A. Again, you get into a semantic of the 14 roadway versus what is off. It's in the vicinity of 15 where he was. I don't know specifically where he was 16 17 but he was in the vicinity.

Q. The dispatch call there, the first contact with dispatch at what, 16:05?

According to this, yes.

And that's the first time on that report 21 which treats this incident of arrest, right? 22

A. On this report, yes.

And let's see. Here's Rivera 2, another document I want to ask you about. Do you recognize

- A. I don't recall speaking to Trooper Rivera about the substance of the report. The way the Investigation Report goes, the trooper writes them, the sergeant will approve it. Usually a criminal investigation office will do the second level of approval. And again, dates, that was submitted, you know, he may have typed it up on the day I wasn't working, and it had been approved on a day I was not working.
- Was it appropriate to write this report in your view knowing what you know after the fact, you know, was it appropriate for him to write this report without making any mention of the background between the relationship, Vicky Martinez, Jose Rivera, and Joel Martinez?
 - Appropriateness?
- Q. Yes. Was it appropriate, was it correct?
- He's a trooper, an incident occurred, he A. placed somebody under arrest, he's mandated to write an Investigation Report.
- Was it appropriate without explaining the reason, at least his perceived reason for the purported upset and tumultuous behavior of Mr.

Page 28

- that, you know, it wasn't appropriate, or, yeah, I was wrong, something to that.
- Q. I will ask you a specific question. Did he tell you that he used the F word a dozen times or 20 times or something like that? Did he admit that
- A. He admitted to behavior in front of the juveniles that matches Trooper Rivera's account.
- Q. Well, did you give him Trooper Rivera's account and ask him to review?
- A. We spoke because your client was very upset. Your client wished to speak to somebody in the supervisory capacity. Your client did not, when I spoke to him, it was my understanding of the events, your client agreed, acknowledged, did not dispute the events that occurred and expressed
- I asked you a specific question. The specific question was did you show Mr. Martinez the written report that you have in front of you so he could express agreement or disagreement with what was written?
 - A. No.
- Q. Oh, okay. It didn't exist at that 24 25 point, did it?

Page 27

Martinez?

- A. I don't have an issue with him not mentioning it.
 - Why is that?
- Is it material to his arrest? Is it material as towards your client's behavior? You know, at the end of the day, the behavior that he described to me which your client acknowledged to me and was written here, you know, using profanity in front of juveniles, being loud and aggressive toward a police officer in uniform and place his hands on him, this seems wholly inappropriate to me.
 - Did you have a discussion with Mr. Q.
- Martinez? 14
 - Yes, I did. A.
 - What did he tell you? Q.
 - In substance, both accounts of the events matched up.
 - And so he told you he had used all this profanity?
 - A. I spoke to him. In substance, yes.
- Well ---22 Q.
- We didn't get into specific stuff, but 23 24
 - you know, he would acknowledge, he did acknowledge
- his somewhat tumultuous behavior in front of people,

Page 29

- No. A.
- So how is it that he became aware, if he did become aware, of what Rivera was saying?
- A. From the moment he walked in the station, he was yelling, he wanted to speak to somebody in a supervisory capacity, and he went so far as saying he wanted to speak to the Attorney General. As a shift supervisor, I saw what was going on. This is somewhat not in the, you know, usual course of business, something like this is occurring. Prisoners come in all the time and they are quiet, whatever. He was in an agitated state. I spoke to him, identified myself as a supervisor. He has some objections, that he's been arrested, which he said he was arrested for no reason. I said that I would speak to him; however, some of the nuts and bolts of processing kind of had to start and he needed to - allow that to occur. Where did you speak to him?
- In the cells.
 - You went into the holding cells? Q.
- A.
- And you sat down with him? Q.
- I don't know if I sat down, but I spoke A. to him within the cells.
